MEDIA: <https://media.borniak.com/>Description:

A fine-mesh grill rack is a versatile tool, ideal for smoking, drying, and grilling various types of food. Thanks to its fine structure, it allows for the even distribution of products, ensuring thorough and effective smoking or drying. Made of AISI 304 stainless steel, it guarantees durability and resistance to corrosion. The 10x10 mm perforations provide optimal support for products, and the maximum load capacity of 5 kg makes the rack sturdy enough for everyday use. It is compatible with Model 150 smokers.
